Morning Chris,
Hope your long weekend went well. I appreciate the info Isaiah provided. I do have a follow up question for you Chris. Apologies, but is there anyway we could chat briefly? I'm trying to help my in-laws out with their current situation and a quick call would clarify everything for me.
My cell is [REDACTED]. I won't take much of your time.
Thanks,
Kevin Jack

Hi Kevin –

Thanks for reaching out.

The Region is considering where urban boundaries could be expanded. You can find our most recent report, with a map, at PDS 33-2021 at the following link:

<https://pub-niagararegion.escribemeetings.com/Meeting.aspx?Id=f30a7639-8867-4a64-8926-687caca3d1c5&Agenda=Merged&lang=English&Item=14>

Specifically, the map of boundary requests is Appendix 2 to that report, here:

<https://pub-niagararegion.escribemeetings.com/filestream.ashx?DocumentId=17782>

I hope this helps. If you have more questions, feel free to reach out to me or Chris Millar (copied), who's managing our boundary review program.

Kind regards

Isaiah

Hi Isaiah,

My name is Kevin Jack from St. Catharines. Professionally I own WeeStream, a live streaming company that does many things, most importantly here - City Council meetings. Yes, I have sat through many many planning meetings :)

During last night's N Falls Council Meeting, Alex Herlovich was making a presentation which alluded to the Urban Boundaries being moved for some Municipalities. Is there a link you can send to what the proposed changes may look like? A map or PDF?

My in-laws have property that abuts the current Urban Boundary in Thorold and am interested to see if that line is moving. This is why I am writing today. It's not a contentious issue - just looking for info.

You can feel free to call me if that's easier for you - my cell is [REDACTED]

Thank you,

Kevin Jack
