I am against development /and or rezoning in the Rebstock area which could cause problems for Last Chance Horse and Pony Rescue. The owners have been there for many years looking after retired and unwanted, sick, unwanted or lost horses and other animals. Please let them live out their natural lives without people encroaching onto their natural setting, and/or making complaints about them. It is an ongoing rescue mission with many volunteers, patrons and helpers to keep it operating as a registered charity. This need for a rescue will need to continue. This is their last chance. Don't let every development in our communities of Crystal Beach and Ridgeway, where we live and pay taxes, get overdeveloped. We came here because it WAS a village, and hopefully remains a village. If it gets bigger it will become just another city full of McDonalds and Walmarts and will NOT be inviting to those who wish to move to an area which we currently wish to maintain and enjoy. Nature was here first. Last Chance was here first. Cater to those who ARE here, please, use your conscience. If Last Chance was YOUR rescue, how would you react to know that it may be in jeopardy because of a grab for more taxes and " development ". Let there be some green space, and give the animals respect.
